

Dear Bill,

12/2/88

Jamie is here and will be sending you things so I write to report that I took a small liberty in your interest.

Ray was on the Larry King show - with at least Mark Lane as his lawyer. I've heard a report that there was another lawyer named Zlotnick.

Then I learned that despite their previous relationship Ray asked another who knew Lane well to ask Lane to be his lawyer, about a year ago.

Jimmie can be pretty duplicitous. He was with Bud and Jim, working behind their backs through Jerry.

The liberty I took is asking that a xerox of the transcript be made so Jamie can send it to you. It will cost enormously less in the Washington area than the costs on our costly magazine and Jamie's time.

If you want a videotape, no ^{problem} ~~problem~~, let me know.

The Long ticklers was gutted by the FBI during the time they lied and said they could not locate it. What Jamie will copy is what I got.

You will find some bank-robbery records of at least the Springfield, Baltimore and I think St. Louis records. So, I'm a bank robber now, too!

My point is that this is and can only be the result of wiretapping after Ramsey Clark refused to sign the authorization Hoover sent him.

Not only was that the only way Jerry then communicated with me - I recall those calls. What, in fact, is how Bud and Jim wound up Ray's lawyers.

Best wishes,

*Jim
