Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I am writing for two purposes. The first is to thank you for your recent book "Case Open" and for all of the work you have done over these many years in regard to the assassination of President Kennedy.

I have read extensively (though certainly not exhaustively) into this subject. I had read Mr. Posner's effort last year and found myself with a sense of disquiet and unease that grew with every page I read. Your dismantling of his effort was excellent and well done.

The second reason I have for writing is to ask a question. Are copies of your other books available through you? If not, where can I write to obtain copies? And at what cost? I had copies of some of your work but they are lost as the result of four moves and one house fire.

Once again, I would like to express my sincere thanks for your efforts over the years. There are still many people in this country to whom truth is a valued commodity and who realize just how difficult it can be to come by at times.

I wish you all the best and look forward to hearing from you at your convenience.

Sincerely yours,

Stan Hopton, Jr.
