Role in Florida TV Bid Denied by White House

The White House yesterday President, announced Tuesday denied that it had in any way encouraged a group headed by President Nixon's chief Florida fund raiser to file an application for the learner of When asked if anyone in the plication for the learner of White House and the learner of the Jacksonville television station sociated with him encouraged WJXT, a subsidiary of The Champion and the group associated with him to apply for Washington Post Co.

George Champion Jr., Florida finance chairman of the Ronald L. Ziegler replied:

Committee to Re-elect the "No, absolutely not."