Dear Mike and family,

While your prayers would always be more than welcome their timing is perfect!

Last week I learned that I have sleep apnea. This means that much of the time I'm sleeping I'm not breathing! So, the neurologist has me scheduled for more sleep tests tonight, I think to determine whether a mask can help me breathe more when I'm asleep. It will be about half-way between here and Washington, Seventh Day adventist hosp.

Last time it took an hour and a half to wire me up, so I suppose it will take that long again tonight. Painless and fantastically impressive!

I'm to get the results on my 79th birthday so I look forward to a good birthday present.

Please do thank your children for praying for me! They are great to do it, too!

I think Jim Moore is not worth any time at all. To a degree you size him up perfectly, meaning as far as you go. He is inferior because for all the years he spent on the JFK assassination he could come up with nothing and his ego screamed.

He told someone who told me that he wrote the book hoping to make some money from it because it is from the other side.

It may interest you to know that a dear friend of my youth who is briefly in Israel also prayed for me at The Wailing Wall

Bless you all!

Harold

Dear Harold:

Just wanted to drop you a line to say hello and to let you know that we still love you in our prayers. (In fact my children have their friends praying for you in Sunday school class.)
I'm sorry. Me. Very sorry.

Was unhappy to read Jim Moore's sarcasm about you in his book, a conspiracy of one. It's very sad.

It seems that Jim's inferiority is showing in every page. I guess he cannot accept that the U.S. Government is less than honest. Take care, and know you are in our hearts.

I'm sure. We very much.

We wanted to read Jim Moore's article about you in his book, a Conspiracy of One. It's very good.
It seems that Jim's impression
