Dear Harold,

This is in response to your letter of 3/2/76. Frieda - who is confined to our apartment by having her left foot in a cast - put her free time to good use. She called up a half dozen hotels in the midtown area with the following results:

	Rates
Summit Hotel - at the 151 St. -	$38, 42, 49
Tudor Hotel - Tudor City - 42nd St & below 1st & 2nd Ave. 304 @ 42 St	$16, 17, 18, 20
Belmont Plaza - Ave 49th	$28, 32, 34, 40
Belmont Hotel - 44th & Madison	$43, 46, 49
Regency - 61 St & Park Ave	$59, 69
Gramercy Park - Ave 21 St	$30

So she made a reservation for you at the Tudor Hotel for March 17th. It's a long walk up to Hamlet (C 8th St & Lexington) but it's near the office of Dell Publishers - Hammerskjold Plaza - 7th Ave in the low forties.

I do hope we'll get to see you then.

Frieda's cast is due to her breaking her fifth metatarsal in her foot on Feb 23 when she slipped in a puddle in Brooklyn & fell. It will take six weeks to heal. Our love to you & her.
 Love forward to seeing you
 Sol & Frieda
