Description:

Copy of letter addressed to James Earl Ray, Signed Friendly Bar.

Serial 187 - 4/27/69

Los Angeles Calif -
April 15-1969

Dear James:

I've sent two telegrams and a letter and no answer from You.

Also spoke to the Warden about 10 minute ago.

Just in case You don't want to remember me. I'll refresh Your Memory once again. This is Your Aunt Freddy Var. it was also Your very favorite Name that You called Me. You loved so much.

2pt

Do You ~~Do~~ recollect the Montrose Beach Hotel. Where You moved in with me + all Your belongings that I did Not want then.

Do You remember the tickets You stole from me + cashed in + got the money also the twenty-six hundred dollars you took from me plus my Jewelery + my best clothes, as I had nothing to wear? Now do You remember me? Do You remember Fred? Also do You remember How You used to call me on by Phone at Midnight & tell me You had two - hundred thousand dollars & was going to Switzerland? To put it in the bank - But You refused me, even five dollars of my own money for food.

I for gone you are that Because I was so sure that Was a lot of good in You and I loved You for the God part that Must still be there.
Now I need my Money
back as I can Live Death.
So have Your lawyer
Cistone or Jerry Brig

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

The money here - Or Wire some so I can come to You - Or Mail me some Money orders so I can Cash them here.
Or Send a a Certified Check to me. Or to the Bank of America at 4th & Spring street.
But Please do return
my Money Otherwise I have No other Alternative than to call Uncle Sam
