Dear Bud,

When you were here and I was collecting things for you for the suit there was a file of papers I had on the desk for this purpose, dealing with the special status of the Commission's files. He has just written me about this. I enclose two excerpts from this letter, the other dealing with the fact that some withheld documents are not withheld from some files whereas they are fro. others. Paul may have more on this. He has worked that furrow carefully and well.

Remind me to tell you what I have just learned about the memo of transfer and will put in your hands.

Enclosed also are my letters to Kelley and Rowley. If you want to keep the attached report, would you please make me a copy?

Dr. Mader may have another book for you (also enclosed). I'm getting it.

The hangup with Pollard is his people are not satisfied with some of the quality. They are perfectionists and he will be in touch with you when the work is completed.

Dick Whalen will be a witness on the memo of transfer if you want him to be. He can also give expert testimony on how the agencies frustrate writers, particularly the FBI, at the top. I have seen him.

You certainly were right about the Judenrat with whom we lunched. A pro forma presentation is more than enough. We may be worse off if they agree.

Bins phoned me today. He's coming up next week. Luce is no longer with his house.

Sincerely,
