Washington, D. C. 20005

Dear Mr. Fensterwald:

This is in response to your letter of February 2, 1970, requesting my review of the denial by the Deputy Attorney General of your request under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, for access to official records of the Department of Justice. Although you requested access to several items which the Deputy declined to make available, you have appealed only his denial of the request for "[a]ll documents filed by the United States with the Court in England in June-July, 1968, in the extradition proceeding by which James Earl Ray, the convicted killer of Dr. Martin Luther King, was returned to this country."

Whether or not the documents you seek are technically exempt under one or more of the provisions of § 552(b), I have determined that you shall be granted access to them. The exemptions do not require that records falling within them be withheld; they merely authorize the withholding of such records by exempting them from the Act's otherwise applicable compulsory disclosure requirements.

Sincerely,

John N. Mitchell
Attorney General
