Dear Jerry,

Were it not for the beer belly and the fact that you sent them to me from Marietta I have taken the man in those four fancy, plastic-encased Polaroids to be a Mexican who hasd just srtcuk it rich

I don't know if the car is a Caddy or a Baddy, but those clothes! Especially that beautiful hat! Even I'dzeeu wear one of those if I had it.

Pretty snazzy top coat too, fashion-plate.

I don't know one car from another, but the paint job and the glass seem to be fine. Does JB have an oil well for the gas?

Shadow in the picture makes it indistinct but the dog dog's head has good lines.

Why the cigar? Did Castro visit the NSRP?

Better do something about that belly or you'll soon have to sling it and let you shoulders carry its weight.

The brim on that hat is great for keeping the sun out of the eyes and would be good protection for eye glasses in the rain, but no hat brim is big enough to keep the weather offnoof that belly.

If you've not grown in any other way, you sure have there!

Sincerely,

Pete Unfer/ele
