House Probers Rebuffed on a Subpoena

Special to The Washington Post

Coast private detective agency. to subpoena records from a West have secret probe of allegations that utilities spied on antinuclear activists House investigators conducting a been rebuffed in their efforts oversight and investigations. month by the House subcommitee on eryville, Calif., and hired by utilities in California and Georgia, failed to in a subpoena issued secretly last in California and Georgia, failed to meet the Feb. 28 deadline this week Research West, Inc., a licensed private detective agency based in Em-

Unit (LEIU) and Research West. and Electric Co., the Department of Energy, the Atomic Industrial Forum, tee to Georgia Power Co., Pacific Gas ties have been sent by the subcommitpower or considered threats by utilior organizations opposed to nuclear ing all material gathered on persons by utility officials. Subpoenas requesta wide spectrum of nuclear oppoelaborate surveillance projects against nents and others considered hostile ing reports that utilities conducted The subcommittee has begun prob-Law Enforcement Intelligence with the deadline. "We have received strong indications from attorneys for Subcommittee officials said yesterday that all but Research West complied fight the subpoena," a subcommittee of-Research West that they are going to

Under the terms of the subpoena a were supplied. After tomorrow a contomorrow to explain why no documents representative of the detective firm can appear before the subcommittee up to tempt-of-congress citation may be voted.

file a contempt-of-Congress action. Business, but later turned over the ma-B. Morton refused a subpoena for information about the Arab boycott of U.S. to honor a congressional subpoena. In 1975 then-commerce secretary Rogers C. terial after a subcommittee vote casion where a private firm had refused The officials said they knew of no oc-

Lenard L. Wolffe, an attorney for the California detective firm, declined yes-terday to say whether Research West fend itself if they refuse. which he said the firm may use to dequest for the documents. Instead Wolffe will comply with the subcommittee's reseveral constitutional grounds

munities. certain First Amendment Press imrorism which he said would give her writen rade articles on countertertary-treasurer of the detective firm, has confiscate property without just com-pensation. Wolffe said he also may cite the fact that Patricia Atthowe, secrethe limits to which Congress may go to the Fifth Amendment which deals with Among the possible grounds for re-fusal, Wolffe said, is the provision of wing groups and individuals to its identified as specializing in providing information on a number of left Research West has been publicly

Robert Lamborn, who was listed on stated that he provided to Western tion as vice president of the firm, West was chartered in 1969. Self-identified burglar Jerome Ducote has wing groups. from numerous files stolen from leftsaid in a sworn deposition in 1975 Research Foundation after Research of an organization called the Western that Research West acquired the files Research West's articles of incorporathat the files transferred from West-ern Research to Research West contained any stolen material. Research. She said she is not aware he provided stolen files to Western no she formed Research West she had Atthowe said yesterday that when knowledge that Ducote claimed was also hired by Georgia Power and it "a clipping service." Research West Federal Power Commission records show PB&E paid Research West $30,-150 between 1973 and 1976. A PG&E was paid $4,770 by the Georgia utility spokesman said yesterday the firm is still employed by the utility and called last year for its services.

division-all gather information three departments—the 17-member public relations division, the nuclear ings in the last two years. At least the target of more than 13 bomb-PG&E. information division and a security The San Francisco utility has been the utility had complied with the sub-The PG&E spokesman said that committee subpoena, but he declined over. gia Power also complied with the subpoena. The utility has been idento say what material was turned tified by former security officials as spying on various nuclear opponents A subcommittee official said Geor-

and others.

obtain information from the federally cials have said the utility was able to contacts by its security men, subcommittee investigators yesterday funded network through personal Former Georgia Power security offithat the Sacramento, Calif., organiza-tion had mailed its documents. more than 200 ized information network which links LEIU is a privately owned computer A spokesman for the LEIU told police departments