Dear Peggy, 6/10/93

I did not send a copy of the enclosed PW on assassination-anniversary books to Mary in the belief it would distyub her without need and knowing that in time she'll not be able to help knowing. However, I did send a copy to Jim Leavelle, who is a friend of hers and told him I'd not sent it to her and to use his own judgement on whether or not to give it to her now.

The Leavelles were here lastweek. We liked them. Jim said he thought that the Ferrels were as good as they have been recently, maybe a bit better, and I did not want any unpleasantness to interrupt that before need.

I also sent copies to Dave Perry ned Gary Mack.

There should be a civil suit. I'm not up to that and I doubt that Mary wants all that added trouble and disturbance. Carroll says we helped those who killed JFK. That is certainly libellous as well as absolutely false.

But I think it is a modest forecast of what they will be publishing.

Mary was in Dallas a week ago, I've been told, but I know nothing more, other than that he wanted to talk to Mack and to get an OK to use some film. Mack would not see him or OK anything at all.

Best,

Dear Davem, 12/30/92

I'm accumulating a larger envelope of what is not urgent to send you when it qualifies for the saving of the priority rate but I think the enclosed is imp~~rtant~~ortant and that the earlier you get it the better the possibility of your having it when you reach a point appropriate for its inclusing.

Something may have to be added to the end.

I think it is powerful stuff. I'd forgotten all about it and a few other records like it until I came on them in collecting records for Agent Oswald?
I can still get this in the mail so I rush.

Best to all,

Harold
