Dear Peggy,

Becausd I want to avoid causing Mary any more distress the copy I intended for her is enclosed. You decide, please, whether it will disturb her too much because you are in a better position to understand.

It was to avoid troubling her even more that I omitted some of what he said when he got angry. It was when he referred to "right-wingers" who he said were never for Kennedy and did not vote for him that he referred to Mary as a "goddamned" ~~he referred to her as both a~~ "bitch" and a "whore," with an angry, raised voice.

It is almost lunchtime, I wrote the enclosed memo as soon as he hung up and while writing that thought of this so I've not really stopped to think it through. But he did refer to FBI agents and retired FBI agents as helping him. I can imagine Lemberling, who has been talking to and interviewed by some but I do not see how he could have been the source of Harry's knowledge that I was in touch with Mary. I do not know whether either of you has been in touch with active or retired agents or with others who could have told Harry. The fact is that he did know that I was in touch with Mary and only you two know so far as I know.

There remains the possibility that he made this up on some kind of hunch or something else he was told. I do not know and have no way of knowing.

When he refused to admit that the suit was filed by Groden I asked him where he was coming from, that there are no secret lawsuits but he did not respond and spoke of something else. My/what paranoia that is!

The only others he goddamned by name are Groden and Lifton. But he clearly was referring to many.

He insists he is on the verge of breaking the case open, repeated it and said it was with the help of these former and present FBI agents and that judge.

When that falls apart, I fear that what ~~is~~ he is now is nothing to what he then will be. Cold comfort? Be careful!

and good luck!!

Harold
