Dear Peggy,

I send you the enclosed letter from Livingstone in Mary's interest and with the stipulation that you please not give a copy to anyone. <sup>On file other than Mary's</sup> I do not want it used against Carroll & Graf, either. Their counsel is my very good friend. And at the moment more than in recent years this kind of disturbance is not easy for me to handle and does affect me. I'm awaiting the beginning of several tests because I am bleeding internally. The last thing I want is any more controversy or disturbance of any kind.

But what he says about Mary and what he is up to I do think you should know. You'll know better than I can what to communicate to her and how.

I did not in any way threaten the cop Richard <sup>(or anyone)</sup> and I do not know who the other two, Joe and Marco are. Do you?

I hope Mary and Buck are as well as they can be. If you are in touch with her, please tell her that.

I don't want to take time to comment in detail on Livingstone's letter and as of now I'm not responding to it but as a generality, what he says about me is in varying degrees untrue, most entirely so.

I hope things are going well with you.

And that if you have any more news about Bad News you'd let me know.

Best wishes,

Hair
