

Dear Peggy,

4/7/93

In haste so the student who is heloing me can mail this, meaning to/out tonight. ⁶⁰

I enclose 2 copies of the letter I have from Waybright. I've drafted a long reply and will send that after I can read and correct it. One copy is for Mary. I do not think it will ~~upset~~ upset her too ~~ma~~ much but you can judge that better than I. I'll also send ~~me~~ response, 2 copies.

I have independent confirmation that Harry ^I says he has 20 or ~~some~~ people in his pay and that some are close to us. We've had ample indication of that anyway.

I'm sorry I do not have the last Harry letter saying I'm the ringleader of the conspiracy he imagines and against whom he'll retaliate because I have a Friday appointment in the states attorney's office.

I am also sorry that I do not have copies of the letters Harry ^{w/}rote on Baltimore police stationery ~~becays~~ because I can't get copies to someone in the p.f. who might very well do something to Harry about that.

If you can use any envelopes like this one I can send you a ~~supply~~ supply. I have them, rarely use them, and I suppose you had to buy the envelope you used.

Please try to keep me supplied with copies of letters and all that can be useful and if necessary, please ask for permission when you first know about them. I see no reason why if desired identifications cannot be removed.

In haste,

Harold
