Dear Ms. Todd:

In my letter to you dated December 31, 1976, I stated that I could locate no letter of mine dated December 15, 1976. I was mistaken, and I am sorry for any inconvenience or confusion I have thus caused you.

Your letter to me of December 22 was in response to mine of December 15, which was addressed to the Attorney General and requested 18 items published or mentioned by the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. When I responded to your letter, I had forgotten about this request and had in mind another FOIA request of mine pending with the Justice Department, this one relating to the photographs and X rays of the Kennedy autopsy. I had recently addressed a letter relevant to that request to your office, thus the source of confusion regarding your December 22 letter.

Thank you for your patience.

Sincerely,

Howard Roffmen
