Dear Dave, 1/24/94

Your were right about the mailing labels. You sent some stickons, a sheet, and I changed where they were then. To keep them together.

I respond in haste because several things that will take time also came today.

I'll be lucky if the financial reward from Selections exceeds the advance and we spent that on nursing-home insurance. If they have even announced the book I've not heard of it. I've been sent no announcement and on the day when I could get out and went to the nearby Walden's, they'd not even heard of it. But their computer showed December publication.

From the time High Trashiest 3 appeared and a few sent me copies of some of its references to me I've not heard a word about it. Or about Harry. Or from anyone who heard from him. I do not think that it is name-calling to refer to him as psychopathic. It is a harsh and unpleasant fact.

I do not really mind but Rose measures himself when he says verbally what he will not put in writing and what he did write me was critical of me and supported Evica in that utterly irrational notion of his that is defamatory.

If you sent me the handwritten note from Posner I do not remember it. I'd like to see it.

After my one experience with Scott I read nothing he writes. He was grossly inaccurate and I do not want to waste time on that kind of writing and his opinions, to which he is entitled, do not interest me.

The first one to "Dr." me (and I'm uncomfortable with it) was in person, Everett Phak at the restaurant. He hasn't stopped yet, either!

My younger sister, who lives in suburban Phila., sent me an article that led me to a little reminiscing. When I've a few free minutes I'll read and correct it and send you a copy, Dave also.

Thanks and out best,

Harold
