TO: JIM GARRISON, District Attorney
FROM: STEPHEN JAFFE, Investigator
RE: ED FOLEY, Radio Broadcaster, Station KIST, Santa Barbara. November 16, 1967
FILE: JIM ROSE

On November 16, 1967, in the office of STANLEY K. SHEINBAUM, at the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, Santa Barbara, we met with ED FOLEY a local radio broadcaster. He offered us the names of conservatives in the area who would be of help to us if we desired. He also mentioned that he knew a man who was extremely valuable to us in terms of his knowledge of the Bay of Pigs invasion forces and Anti-Castro groups in Florida in 1963.

FOLEY stated that this person was known to him as "VINCE" although that was not his real name. He told us that VINCE had been a pilot during the Invasion and was connected with the CIA. Since then, he'd broken all relations with the CIA and was being pursued by that agency for arrest. He (FOLEY) agreed to try and set up a meeting with VINCE and myself. This meeting took place on the 3rd of January, 1968 with VINCE who is now known to us as JIM ROSE.

Additional information supplied by MR. FOLEY was as
