Now, the full untold story that lays to rest the corpse of history's most public assassin. "A poignant, even tragicomic word-picture of Oswald's killer . . . Jack Ruby is about a paradoxical man, at once pathetic and strong; erratic and purposeful; kind and cruel . . . I doubt anyone will come much closer than Wills and Demaris to fathoming Ruby's motivation . . . They have made the moving summation that Ruby's jurors never heard."—Book World $5.95 at bookstores
