ard Can't Act Case I 141165 MM.M

Austin Bureau of The News member said Thursday.

said earlier in Dallas that he is a book about the case. willing to recommend that the not consider cases until convic- with Wade agreeing to a reductions have become final,

"As long as Ruby's case is on appeal, we would not have jurisdiction," Turner said. "We could to set aside the death penalty, not consider it until there was a the defense lawyers might find final conviction and he had been themselves cut off from renewing delivered to the custody of the their court battle to get a new Department of Corrections at trial for Ruby. Huntsville."

TURNER SAID the board gives "considerable weight" to opinions of the trial judge and prosecutor in deciding whether to recommend a reduction in a sentence, but considers other factors also.

Gov. John Connally would make the final decision on changing Ruby's sentence.

death penalty, but can only recom-attorneys. If other moves failed, mend that the governor do so. On they could ask a jury to rule the other hand, the governor can-that Ruby had become insane after not spare the life of a condemned he was sentenced to die. man without a favorable recom- If found insane, he would go to mendation from the board.

tary for the governor, said Con-was restored. nally never comments on a case before it is referred to him.

"I DO NOT KNOW what he in prison. would do in Jack Ruby's case," Christian said, "I have never board to review the case of every heard him mention how he feels convict who has received credit to the electric chair for the murder ord, an inmate could get this of Lee Harvey Oswald in the base-credit in seven calendar years. ment of the Dallas City Hall after But the board would not be re-Oswald had been charged with as-quired to release Ruby when it sassinating President Kennedy in reviewed his case. Dallas Nov. 22, 1963.

is pending before the Texas his life in prison.

Court of Criminal Appeals here. AUSTIN, Texas - The State The court has agreed also to hold Board of Pardons and Paroles can-a separate hearing on the defense not consider Jack Ruby's case contention that Judge Joe B. while his appeal is pending, a Brown should have disqualified himself from presiding at Ruby's Dist. Atty. Henry Wade had trial since the judge was writing board change Ruby's death pen-miss their appeal and ask the RUBY'S LAWYERS could dis-A. C. Turner, one of three mem-pardons board to change his senbers of the board, said it does tince to life imprisonment. Even tion in the sentence, they would be taking a gamble.

If the board or Connally refused

Ruby's lawyers could follow another course which might keep his fate in doubt for years. They could argue in the state courts for a new trial and, if unsuccessful there, go through the federal

If they also failed there, they could turn to the pardons board.

STATE LAWS also provide The board cannot set aside a another legal route for defense

a mental hospital and could not George Christian, press secre-be electrocuted unless his sanity

> A life sentence would require Ruby to spend at least seven years

State laws require the pardons for serving at least 15 years. By A Dallas jury sentenced Ruby compiling an excellent prison rec-

If it saw fit, it could require Ruby's plea for a new trial the slayer to spend the rest of