It's the Other Side Who Is Sinning

By Chalmers M. Roberts Rusk Is Sounding More Like Dulles

Dean Rusk is sounding more and more like John Foster who seem to look more and Like husbands and wives Washington Post Staff Writer alike as time passes, patetic Dulles. in term of serivce for Sec-retaries of State and Rusk aerial mileage as the perilogged about 13 months to go to pull is now next in line, with Dulles holds eighth place It is, however, on the re-Rusk already the same has stances of time. It is the other fellow who is the sin-ner so it's up to him to given the altered circumsfance is about the same, Rusk feels. tends to avoid the finalities Vietnam that Rusk sounds lated issues of China and repent Dullesian prose but his much like Dulles felt Dulles. 910 man Administration. Dulles, ern policy during the Trumajor piece of Far Eastworked very closely on a member it, Rusk and Dulles Although few now re-

Cooperated on Policy

News Analysis

ing 1950-52 as a consultant Administration, served durof State in the Eisenhower before becoming Secretary ern Affairs. tary of State for Far Easttime, was Assistant Secrepeace treaty. Rusk, at that negotiating the Japanese and personal representative the Secretary of State President Truman in regime in Peking, Dulles made a lengthy speech to say "no." Now Rusk is engaged in damping down, in less acerbic tones but with no less finality, the current in the United States about easing the American attitalk along the same lines tude toward the Communist in the United States about Nine years ago, when

Oppose U.N. Seating

born for the wrong," supported war in Vietnam. tainly has been the Rusk at-titude toward the Chinese-Dulles, "let us be steadfast for the right." That cer-"If communism is stubsaid > contact with Peking through ed States has had sufficient mission to the United Na-Warsaw. Both rejected dipthen at Geneva and now at the ambassadorial meetings, tions. omatic recognition and Both argued that the Unit-press he relented. Rusk has have strong protests from travel to China Dulles at first refused to let even American newsmen promise of reciprocity. tives come here without a newsmen or even suggesting Chinese for an exchange of gone further in asking the passports Peking's representabut after for stand that pat; indeed, he is prepared for cultural ex-changes, it appears, though not for altering the trade ence the evolution of affairs in China." Rusk does not embargo. And, like Dulles, three, would favorably influor cultural relations, nor all "neither recognition, trade ern European trade deals with China. he is unhappy about Dulles argued that

Change in Peking The issue today, as it has been raised in the Senate hearings, relates in lation."

even though Vice President Humphrey has done so pubthrough this isolation. his press conference Friday an hands are clean because icly. He argued that China's solation is largely self-imsosed and that the Amerio accept that formulation he United States has made navailing efforts to break

> United Press International DEAN RUSK

tration is inhibited by the war in Vietnam from taking any steps that do not produce reciprocity from Pemal and that the Administhe efforts have been mini-The fact is, however, that reciprocity from policy of isolation who argue for a change con-tend that the American Nine years ago Dulles noted that China was "bit-terly hateful" of the United ful today. But many of those States. China is doubly hate-in Peking. It is in this reed States for the day there "containment without have advocated a policy of gard that various witnesses is a change of leadership part ot preparing the Unit-

Hatred From China

Rusk, however, refused at helped to intensify, rather than diminish, that hate. . . . isolation is self-imposed there will be a change then but the United States knows be inclined to alter policies after Mao's death. To this argue, to give heart to those of the succeeding generaattitudes. plied Friday that perhaps line of reasoning, Rusk retions in Peking who might ington are needed, tential sucessors and their too little about Mao's po-Signs of change in Washthey

In short, this is where we came in. Mr. Rusk, meet Mr. Dulles.

