

NEW PLOT CASE MOVE EXPECTED

T. P. James Picayune
Garrison Says Arrests

Will Be Made
3/19/67

Officials of Baptist Hospital confirmed Saturday night that Clay Shaw, charged with conspiracy in the death of President John F. Kennedy, is in the hospital for "rest and unspecified treatment."

An assistant Orleans Parish district attorney said Saturday that a bill of information against Clay L. Shaw, accused of conspiring to participate in a plot to assassinate President John F. Kennedy, may be filed by the district attorney's office Monday.

The unidentified assistant district attorney added, "I am sure that before we get through, there will be numerous witnesses. We just wanted to make sure the judges had enough to rule on."

A three-judge panel consisting of Criminal Court Judges Bernard J. Bagert, Malcolm V. O'Hara and Matthew S. Braniff ruled Friday Jim Garrison's office presented enough evidence in the four-day preliminary hearing to "establish probable cause that a crime has been committed."

Judge Bagert, interviewed while leaving the Criminal Courts bldg., said it will be up to the district attorney's office to decide when the trial will be conducted.

Smiling, confident, Garrison emerged from his guarded home Saturday, playfully kissed his children on the front lawn, and told a newsman there is no doubt that further arrests will be forthcoming in his investigation.

Garrison, fresh from a courtroom victory that will make retired executive Shaw the first man to go to trial in the assassination of President Kennedy, said:

"This whole case is a very intricate thing. It will be some time before all arrests are made. But there is no doubt about that, O.K.?"

Then he entered a taxi and rode off.

A private patrolman stationed outside Garrison's white brick, two-story home said an around-the-clock guard has been on duty there for a week.

Garrison's chief investigator, Bill Gurvich, hinted broadly that the state did not play all its cards in the four-day preliminary hearing for Shaw. "If we had needed more goods we would have brought them in," he said.

At a preliminary hearing, a prosecutor normally offers just enough evidence to show probable cause to hold the defendant for trial. The rest of the evidence is carefully guarded until the trial as a means of keeping the defense in the dark.

Reports indicated that Perry R. Russo, Garrison's star witness, returned to Baton Rouge during the weekend. He said during the hearing that he had not worked as an insurance salesman since he came here Feb. 27.