S-1 9/1/70

1970

Russo Charged With Holding Stolen Goods

The District Attorney's office has accepted a charge of possession of stolen property against Perry Raymond Russo but has refused a charge of simple burglary.

Russo, 29, a star witness in the Kennedy assassination conspiracy trial of Clay Shaw, was arrested Aug. 22 and booked with simple burglary of a residence at 4760 Overton Drive in which property valued at $8,400 reportedly was stolen.

The charge against Russo, 5807 Elysian Fields Ave., involves possession of a stolen safety deposit box key. The key belonged to Alvin E. Fontcuberta of the Overton Drive address.

Carl E. Moore, 20, also of 5807 Elysian Fields, was booked with burglary, but that charge too was dropped by First Assistant DA James L. Alcock. Moore was charged, however, with possession of a stolen motorcycle valued at $2,000.

PERRY RAYMOND RUSS