Dear Mrs. Sadowski,

I regret very much that my age and the state of my health preclude my engaging in the correspondence you would like.

It may not have occurred to you, but writers write books to answer people's questions.

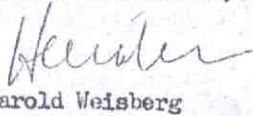

Some people write books for other reasons, too, and when they are not accurate or when they advance seemingly reasonable theories the reader is the captive of those authors.

Thus you can believe that you have really engaged in research while you may have been reading what is not factual and often is worse than that.

And that may not be research.

I do appreciate the kind things you said very much.

Thanks and best wishes,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

As an ardent admirer of Pres. John F. Kennedy (I was thirteen when he was assassinated), and as a serious student of his assassination, I am hoping for the opportunity to initiate some correspondence between us. I am very interested in what you have said and done over the years in reference to this subject.

I am writing to you, in particular, because you have deservedly gotten the respect of all serious assassination researchers. Motivated obviously by only altruistic reasons, you have accomplished what concerned private citizens like myself simply contemplate. Therefore, before I take up your time with a deluge of questions and comments, I would like to know that you have the time and the inclination to address them. I fervently hope to hear that you would welcome my questions, but, in either event, I want to applaud you for your persistence and accomplishments in this area. I also hope that in my lifetime the truth will be known.

Sincerely,

Beverly A. Sadowski
