Mr. Weisberg & Mrs. Weisberg:

Dateline on NBC ran a story tonight about Robert Oswald. It featured the same old misinformation and it seems Robert buys it too. He thinks Lee did it. Hasn't he read any of your books? Each time a book or story comes out "validating" the myth I get so frustrated.

I imagine how you must feel. Isn't there anyone out there with some clout and connections to get your story out? The real story.

Evidence that can't be disputed. It seems that somehow, somehow it could happen. Enough time has passed. I wish I could do something but I'm a struggling actor with zero influence anywhere. I'm sure you've gotten letters like this and I'm sure you've been trying your hardest. If anything this can be a letter of encouragement. Hope things are going well.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Schatner,

Beginning with the assassination the major media has supported whatever the government said, for all the world as though it were part of the government. There is not much any individual can do except keep trying, make the record that can be made and hope that there may come a time when it can get the attention it has been denied.

Perhaps the decision to seal a print of the Zapruder film to anybody who wants it may lead to something. I hope so. And if anything appears in the Chicago papers about that I'll appreciate the clippings for the record for history if not for anything else.

There was a time when coexisting with this permeating major-media attitude was difficult but that time has passed. I have continued work despite age and serious health reverses and leave a considerable volume of manuscripts for the record for our history.

Thanks for your letter.

Best wishes,

Harold Weisberg
