Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I just wanted to take time to thank you once again for your hospitality and enlightening discussion on the assassination of President Kennedy. In a field where most sources of information and materials are only concerned with making a buck, it was an honor and a privilege for me to meet someone whose only interest is in spreading the truth. I find it truly remarkable and commendable for you, having had your work constantly ripped-off, to be so selfless and giving of your time and research. For this I am, of course, extremely grateful.

I hope that you do not mind if I continue to seek information and guidance from you, when the need arises, during the course of my research and production. If there is anything that I can do to repay your generosity (act as a gofer in Washington, etc.), please feel free to let me know.

Most sincerely yours,

Dear Chip,

Thanks for your kind words.

Of course I won't mind if you think I can help you. Just ask.

And if I can think of anything you can do for me in D.C., I'll ask

Good luck!
