

KIDNAP SUSPECT SHOT ON STREET

Wounded in Legs While Walking in Quarter
A 37-year-old white man accused of kidnaping and beating a young woman hostage last weekend in his residence was shot in both legs early Saturday while walking in the French Quarter.

He was Felix Espinosa, 1719 N. Claiborne, who was out of jail on bond in connection with charges of simple kidnaping and aggravated battery in connection with the alleged abduction-assault.

A car driving past him in the 600 block of St. Louis at about 2:30 a. m. slowed down, Espinosa told police, and one of the passengers opened fire at him, firing a number of shots.

Two of the shots struck Espinosa in the legs. He was carried to Charity Hospital by a passerby and at the hospital was reported in satisfactory condition. He told police he did not see his assailant, nor could he give a reason for his being shot.

Espinosa Wednesday had been arrested on the complaint of a 22-year-old woman who accused him of kidnaping her at knife-point last Saturday night and then holding her hostage for two days during which time she told police she was stripped of her clothing and beaten with various weapons, including lengths of rubber hose.

Espinosa denied the accusations at the time of his arrest.

The woman was taken to Charity Hospital Monday night after she said she escaped and pointed out Espinosa, who also visited the hospital the same night. Police were unsuccessful at the time in arresting Espinosa, at whom one shot was tired as he fled.
