James Earl Ray, Bride 'Honeymoon' With Guards

People Today

atchful eyes of prison guards and en went their separate ways — he ick to his cell and she home to w minutes of conversation under the James Earl Ray and his bride had "honeymoon" that consisted of a e assassination of Dr. Martin Luther ing Jr., Friday wed Anna Sandhu, a in State Prison in Petros, Tenn. year-old divorcee, at Brushy Moun-Ray, serving a 99-year sentence for on, which he has since recanted. rving a 99-year sentence on his ry nervous during the ceremony, inducted by the Rev. James Lawson, close associate of King. Ray is The new Mrs. Ray said she was

Ray will not become eligible for

"I didn't know my right hand from y left hand," the new Mrs. Ray said iter the ceremony. "He had to help me. I could feel him trembling with my arm."

Although the couple will not be allowed to consummate their marshe will now return to her work A free-lance artist, Mrs. Ray said riage, she said she is a happy woman.

"I don't think I've had a day this good in my life," she said.

week for four hours each visit. be allowed to see her husband twice a Congugal visits are not allowed in Tennessee prisons, but Mrs. Ray will of guards.

"We sat at a table," she said. "We said we're glad we're married to each minutes with his bride in the company and punch aftter the ceremony and Ray was allowed to spend a few The couple shared traditional cake other. I said that to him and he agreed with me."

Ray and his attorney, Mark Lane, who also attended the wedding, are still seeking a new trial.

Lane said Friday he knows the name of a person involved in the 1968 assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King and will identify the person show there was a group of people involved in the murder of Martin Luther King Jr.," Lane said. "We have discovered evidence to conference. home to Memphis in hopes of winning Ray a new trial in the King case, announced his findings at a news legislator who recently moved his Lane, a former New York State within two weeks.

ANNA SANDHU PROUDLY DISPLAYS WEDDING BAND AFTER CEREMONY