Dear Ms. Stevens:

It was a pleasure to speak with you yesterday, and I appreciate your willingness to undertake on my behalf a confidential review of files regarding Gordon Michael Duane Novel which Mr. Harold Weisburg generously has offered to make available to me, and to copy selected documents for me.

As we discussed, I am interested especially in the files which Mr. Weisberg obtained under the Freedom of Information Act from the Federal Bureau of Investigation and similar materials. I already have an extensive file of clippings from the Times-Picayune and the States-Item, so I do not think that you need to copy any of those.

I have enclosed a check in the amount of $100 which you may apply in the manner that we discussed. I would appreciate it if you would telephone me (collect) before you commence your review so that we can discuss further the subjects which are of particular interest to me in connection with Mr. Novel.

Sincerely yours,

Malcolm R. Schade
