

Dear Joseph Schneider,

10/12/94

Thanks for the thoughtfulness of the SASE.

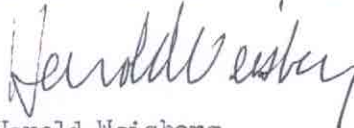

The answer to your first question, when and by whom will NEVER AGAIN! be published is I wish I could tell you! It could have been published with ease before 7/93, before the literary sewers began to overflow. It is ^{now} contract to Galleⁿ/Carroll & Graf. They did not keep their own time for publication and ^uassuming that this time they will it will be in the stores in 5/95. For a book completed in 1992!

You also ask my source for syaing live bullets were found in the Payne garage and you do not recall this from my earlier books. After all these years I cannot be certain but I believe it was in either the list of what Rose and Stovall said they took under the warrant or before they got any warrant that the Commission published in its 26. If not my source was either the Rose or Stovall testimony.

You are correct in saying that as time goes on much is forgotten. This is in part at least due to the theories used as a substitute for fact. People get all wound up in them and fact becomes immaterial.

As of today, it may interest you to know, not a peep from Posner or his publisher. And if you waste time and money to get his paperback you'll see he could not respond in it- and didn't except with a lie, that Case Open was my first commercial publication. But as you may remember from Case Open he has trouble telling the truth even by accident.

Thanks and best wishes, your junior at 81,

Harold Weisberg
