Dear Cary,

点。 点: 一: 一: 一: 高 器

Your letter of 11/20, postmarked 11/21, arrived today. I'll try and get to it later today. It is entirely reasonable.

What I earlier indicated I would be sending is enclosed. I intend no offense in reminding you I want no mention of this to envous under any circumstances. You may not repart it as I do, so nossibly the hottest thing yet. But I want to circuit its use, prevent its misuse, and it is doubtful whether I'll be able to get the book written before we have to use it in court. With the proper witnesses on the stand, it should put some in hall, and it is many than shough to blow everything up, if enything can. If you note time, you may want to rerest the letters leading up to it.

In some ways the most smezing perts are their open violation of the executive order and their tacit admission they lie to mes about such matters as these.

Whether this portands something also, whether it forecests a change in policy, or musther it is from accident, ambagrassment of ignorance, I can not pretend to know. I do know I am grateful for it.

Until I hear from Maul, I'll not send him the copy I've made and put saide. I hope he doesn't resent this and my letter on Dave (to which he has not responded).

Lunch time.

Set,
