Gary and Dick,

Scratch the request for the issue of The Councillor following the one Dick sent. They began my subscription with that particular one. However, if anything appeared in earlier issuesyou think I should know, please let me know.

As of now the addition to COUP is close to 100,000 words. Despite taking off to rest a bit, swimming, even just subathing, as I did for an hour today, I've gotten much written in the past few days. The chapter I'M in, analyzing the Look 4/15 writings, and one I'll write on whether or not there was evidence of a conspiracy, and the draft is about done. I'll do a chapter on the Sirhan case, but I now visualize a possibly publishable work abstracted from the entire COUP, one on just the Ray case. If I agree to this, the conditions will have to enable publication of the entire work in a small edition, for there must be the complete record.

Separately my exchange with the Archives on the weight of 399. I've also written my Senator further on this.

They're straining so hard they've rapturing the gnats, too.

Best to both,

H
