Dear Gary,

I've gone over the fat envelope you sent and am returning it. Here are a few notes:

First, a suggestion: you should put the date and source on each. In order to keep myself from forgetting this, I have made it a habit to do it before I clip.

My machine is aging faster than I am, or it needs an adjustment more. I wasted much expensive paper and on some failed to get good copies anyway, for example, the LIFE pictures (King). If you ever have time to try Xeroxing the on-the-scene pictures, at the moment of the murder, I'd appreciate that for I want to study them further. I'll probably write the photographer, who was with ETV PEL, on a project. Maybe have others, probably did pan to the point identified by those on the balcony.

The Playboy piece on the CIA by Senator Young is incomplete. It ends on page 158, which is not the last page.

Please thank Atkinson. I made a copy. It is too pale. When he hears, please ask him for two copies of his originals, one for me and one for the lawyer.

I have not copied the NSA/CIA brochure gotten up out there because, if I wasted no paper at all, it would cost over $3.00. However, if you ever find an extra copy, I'd like to have it. Do not copy it for me yourself, for you cannot afford it either. I have no urgent, present need for it. Of the funds and foundations mentioned, I have most interest in Price, if you ever come across or have anything on it, including the essentials, its full name and address. I have not checked my own file on this subject, but I think it includes what is not in the brochure.

One clipping you included without having mentioned is valuable. That (unidentified) is the acknowledgement by Barrientos of CIA involvement in the Che murder. That appeared in none of the papers I see.

Possibly you didn't have it and were going to try and get it from Vince, but you did not include the Goulden story (stories?) on Oswald as an agent. Of course, if you should even see an extra copy of that issue if LIFE in the back-number stores (none around here), please grab.

In haste,

Bernabei coming 5/14 for up to week.
