Dear Paul,

Thanks for your last three mailings. Enclosed are my most recent letters to Harold.

You will see in my most recent letter to Harold that I have hopes of visiting San Francisco for a week in June, around the 19th and 20th when there is a Heroin Symposium. I would hope to be able to spend a lot of time with the people at the Haight-Ashbury Free Clinic. If you will be in town then, and I do make it, I will finally get a chance to meet you. Unfortunately, the trip, if I can manage it, will be more business than pleasure.

Thanks for all the lists you sent. I have full clippings during the trial from both N.O. newspapers, but am looking after.

Agreed on Julius Mader. He is either a fraud or a waste of time. Joachim Joesten just sent me something which I haven't opened yet. Last time he wanted "the cream of my research" for publication, and offered in exchange a free subscription to his newsletter. If all it contained was my own research, it would scarcely benefit me to have it. It is ironic that his name, along with Buchanin's, still comes up (i.e. at an appearance I made just a week ago). It is even worse that his books are in all the libraries thanks to Peter Dawnay, and that Harold's and Sylvia's are hard to find.

It looks like I will be addressing the Minnesota Bar. The young lawyers were going to sponsor me for a special show at night during the Bar convention, and then the older lawyers got a little uptight and decided maybe they should hear from me.

Agreed on your comments on the exchange in Computers and Automation. I fear it is just generally tearing down the legitimate work on the case.

Martin did volunteer the info that his film was edited. In any event, the FBI gave him back a copy, not the original, lying and saying that it was the original. There are some good ideas in your letter of April 7 to Harold.

Well, I'd better close now. Take it easy.

Harry
