Dear Dick,

Thanks for your letter of March 12 and the enclosed memo on that Newsweek article. I haven't checked on Ned's views on Roberts after that more recent article. Ned, being part at least of the financial establishment, has some needs to believe in it. He also gets different treatment from people like Roberts than one of us would. Finally, and perhaps most important, in meeting people like Roberts he gets to see them as somewhat reasonable. But his experience is like that of U. of Minn.'s regents professors, two of whom are personal friends, who met Agnew and were reassured until Agnew's next few public statements.

Harold used your stuff well in Frame-Up. Congratulations for the good work. While you kept in touch on it, I did not appreciate it as much until I saw it all at once. I had the same reaction to the last chapter of the book. While I'm sure that I have every single one of those letters and knew 100% of that story, it simply did not make the impression as it unfolded that it did when Harold presented it in the last chapter. dn the book it became both fascinating and even funny at times.

I still haven't gotten into my dissertation and really need to get off my ass. We were unsuccessful in getting the Tribune to serialize Harold's book, but I hope to spend a good deal of time getting it publicised through other sources. Jerry Policoff in NY is doing a fine job of it. He's someone you really should meet. He called long distance on Friday to tell me that Percy Foreman arrived at the studio for the Bandy show, but wouldn't debate Harold.

Well, I'd better close. Enclosed are carbons of recent letters. Take it easy.

Gary
