Inmate Bundy Again Quizzed By DA Aides

Vernon Bundy Jr., the Negro inmate at Parish Prison who testified Friday at the preliminary hearing for Clay Shaw in connection with an alleged conspiracy to assassinate President John F. Kennedy, was questioned again today by representatives of the district attorney's office.

Bundy's appearance was a high point of Friday's hearing. After he completed his testimony, the state rested its case to show probable cause that Shaw should be bound over for trial in the alleged conspiracy.

Bundy, 29, testified that he had seen Clay Shaw and Lee Harvey Oswald together on the Lake Pontchartrain seawall during the summer of 1963. Oswald was identified by the Warren Commission as the lone assassin.

Bundy identified photos of both Shaw and Oswald. He said during the preliminary hearing for Shaw that he saw Shaw pass a roll of bills to the man he identified as Oswald.

Bundy was seen being ushered from the prison to the district attorney's office on the upper floor of the Criminal Courts Building today. He was escorted by Ptn. Charles Jan-nau, an investigator on the DA's staff.
