TO LIST BACKERS

The judge also ordered Mr. Garrison to produce records of receipts and disbursements of the privately donated funds.

The businessmen, who called themselves Truth and Consequences, Inc., organized after Mr. Garrison complained that public records of money spen by his office were hampering the inquiry.

NEW ORLEANS, June 8 (AP)—Lawyers for the man accused of plotting to assassinate President Kennedy won their fight Thursday to expose the private fund behind the investigation conducted by District Attorney Jim Garrison.

Criminal Court Judge Edward A. Haggerty signed a subpoena ordering a group of businessmen financing the investigation to produce its membership rolls and money records at a hearing Monday.

Defense lawyers wanted the records in time for the inquiry.

The decision to withdraw was anounced at a news conference Wednesday by Mr. Novel's at torney, Steve Plotkin, who said after due.

Federal District Court Judge at a later date.

Federal District Court Judge Judge Amounting the inquiry.

The decision to withdraw was anounced at a news conference Wednesday by Mr. Novel's at torney, Steve Plotkin, who said an identical suit would be filed themselves Truth and Consequences, Inc., organized after Mr. Garrison complained that Judges A. Comiskey refused a Judges A. Comiskey refused a public records of money spen by his office were hampering the inquiry.

The decision to withdraw was anounced at a news conference Wednesday by Mr. Novel's at a later date.

Federal District Court Judge Industry of the inquiry.

Novel to make the deposition in Ohio, where he is fighting extradition to Louisiana. Mr. Novel was pleaged $100 monthly to commit burglary of a Houma, Industry of the district of the district of the provided produced at a later date.

Federal District Court Judge Edward of monthly to make the deposition in Ohio, where he is fighting extradition to Louisiana of the provided produced at a later ander.

Federal District Court Judge at a subspect of monthly to make the deposition of the inq

Monday.

Defense lawyers wanted the records in time for the hearing on their motions to quash the indictment charging Clay Shaw, a New Orleans business executive, with conspiring to murder the president John F. Kennedy, who is sought as material witness in the investigation, had filed the Federal court contending that he had been deprived of his constitutive, with conspiring to murder tation was damaged by Mr. President John F. Kennedy, who is garrison as a result of the was shot from ambush in Dallas funds given by Truth and Con-