Sunday Star Feb 23,196

LT. COL. PIERRE A. FINCK

MRS. RUTH HYDE PAINE

Witness Tells How Oswald Got Book Depository Job

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A row, will be Army Lt. Col. Oswald as neat and clean. She Texas kindergarten teacher tes- Pierre A. Finck, one of the doc- said she never knew him to yesterday that a chance remark autopsy. led to Lee Harvey Oswald's job on the route of President John Paine apparently was aimed at shave."

The teacher, Ruth Hyde Paine of Irving, Tex., was called by by chance, not design.

applying for work at the Texas School Book Depository. It was ing, from this building, the Warren Commission said, that Oswald alone shot and killed the President on Nov. 22, 1963.

Commission on Trial.

The commission, which found no credible evidence of conspirahas, in effect, been put on haired Shaw, retired 55-year-old New Orleans businessman.

The state spent most of yesterday trying to discredit the FBI's investigation for the commission.

Court adjourned after Mrs. Paine's testimony and chief de-fense counsel F. Irvin Dymond you were making the call? said his next witness when the trial resumes at 9 a.m. tomortified at the Clay L. Shaw trial tors who performed the Kennedy on the route of President John Fallie apparents.

F. Kennedy's fateful Dallas more rebutting the conspiracy claim and showing that Oswald's pres-

Mrs. Paine testified she made an inquiry, without Oswald's months after the couple moved knowledge, that resulted in his to New Orleans, she drove Oswald's wife, Marina, back to Irving, a dallas suburb, in Septerm-

Looking for Work

neighbor's suggestion, she said, "I called the Texas School Book trial alongside the big, gray- Depository and asked whether haired Shaw, retired 55-year-old they were employing at this time, whether they had an opening." Oswald applied the next day and got the job, she said. Questioning by Dymond:

Q. Did Lee Harvey Oswald have any way of knowing that A. No.

Mrs. Paine said she recalled worked.

wear a beard, nor had she ever seen him "obviously in need of a

This contradicted star prosecution witness Perry Raymond ence on the motorcade route was by chance, not design.

Mrs. Paine, 36, a slender, "roommate" of a homosexual in the defense at Shaw's trial. He is charges with conspiring with Oswald and others to assassinate Kennedy.

Mrs. Paine, 36, a slender, 5-foot-10 brunette, told of befriending the Oswalds after meeing them at a Dallas party wald, Shaw and David W. Ferward of the party wald, Shaw and David W. ting to kill Kennedy, Both Oswald and Ferrie are dead.

Pictures Introduced

Earlier, the state introduced into evidence blown-up prints of pictures from the Warren Com-Oswald arrived Oct. 4, she mission Report. Dymond desaid, and was looking for work.
"He was getting pretty discouraged," Mrs. Paine said. At a Dist. Court Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr. ruled: "I'm not letting the Warren Report in."

FBI firearms expert Robert A. Frazier of Washington was called by the defense and testified he found no evidence to indicate that shots which hit Kennedy were fired from any spot other than a sixth-floor window of the depository where Oswald