Paul-do any of these names mean anything to any of you? Or is he a nut. I'm not copying the enclosures. The only other thing is his having lived 10 years earlier in a building in which Bonnie Caire lived, 616 Dumaine.

Dear Mr. Shea,

Your fascinating mailing of the 5th, without letter, reached me today. Ir can conjecture on all sorts of things, such as who is or was CIA, Joan Joaquin Wood having friends, but I sure wish you'd spell this out. Or is it that with some of it you cannot, like your own presence at the Dai Ichi Hotel 10/63?

If your own New Orleans addresseshad been ten years later than 1952 and 1963, you'd have had interesting neighbors, esp. on Gov. Nicholls. When did you leave N.O.? Did you know Shaw or any of theother people of interest? You indicate on the enclosure header "January, 1964" (was this prepared then or is it so headed because it refers to that period?) that Suzanne LeSassier, Nancy Cass Moore knew Shaw in N.O. Is there something to indicate they have special knowledge? Shaw knew many people, some of whom I know. Esp. since both seem to have left N.O. in the 50s. Or is it on Henry Lenoir, prop of Vesuvio's bar, Columbus at Broadway, on whom you focus?

The foruth name is Japanese, and I am unfamiliar with Japanese names. So, I do not know if the Yuri Tanaka who has a boyfriend with an investigative agency is male, female or both!?

The name Ron Crotty seems familiar, but I cannot place it. Ditto Dick Barber and Helen Launsberry, but again, I cannot place them. I also know no place in the French Quarter knowe as "skyscraper". I know the tallest building there is the Monteleone Hotel.

The death of the wife of the local SF manager of Air France, Mrs. K.J. Boudouris, does escape me. With what is it connected?

Please be a good fellow and spell these things out for me, to the degree you can. Including the "Devine" on the map, near your home. I think I have friends who live near you.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Woman's Death Blamed On Pills

The death of a 44-year-old Woodacre woman, whose body was found Tuesday in her disarrayed bathroom, was apparently due to an overdose of pills, the Marin Coroner's office said today.

Coroner's Investigator Keith Craig said the possibility that the woman, Jacqueline Fern Boudouris, died from a head wound has been ruled out.

The condition of the bathroom and blood on a hallway wall had led officers to investigate the possibility of homicide, but it is now believed that Mrs. Boudouris took her own life.

An empty pill bottle was found, as were notes that indicated despondency.
