RS: LEE HARVEY CSWALD

Two rifle bullet fragments, C2 and C3

Federal Eureau of Investigation, displayed Exhibit C2, a rifle bullst fragment, to Thomas G. Mills, Chief Hospital Corpsman, white States Navy, assigned to the doctor's office, White House, Wrahingtom, D. C. Mills identified the fragment as the one he recovered from the space between the right front seat and the door panel of the right front door on the President's car. This recovery was rais on the night of November 22, 1963, after the recovery was rais on the night of November 22, 1963, after the recovery was rais en the night of Washington, D. C., from Dallas, Freedilatis car was returned to Washington, D. C., from Dallas, Taxas. This bullet fragment was turned over to Special Agent Bartlett on November 22, 1963.

C3 - On June 2, 1964, Special Agent Orrin H. Bartlett displayed Exhibit C3, a rifle bullet fragmant, to Mr. Paul Paterni, Deputy Chief, United States Secret Service, Washington, D. C. Faterni identified this fragmant as the cas he recovered from the middle of the front seat of the President's car. This recovery was made on the night of November 22, 1963, after the car was returned to Washington, D. C., from Dallas, Texas. This bullet fragment was turned over to Special Agent Bartlett on November 22, 1963.