[REDACTED] upon re-interview on May 12, 1968, stated after considering the matter he now recalls one JIMMY RAYE (phonetic), a white male, age 27, 6'1", 150 pounds, left handed, who was somewhat active in gambling activities at the Missouri State Penitentiary (MSP). This individual was also a basketball player at the institution. RAYE is still believed to be at MSP and at one time an older brother, believed to be LARRY RAYE, was an inmate at the penitentiary. [REDACTED] is of the opinion this RAYE may be confused with subject JAMES EARL RAY by the person furnishing information regarding an association between him and subject RAY.

[REDACTED] recalled JIMMY RAYE (phonetic) having been in trouble in connection with a gambling debt owed to [REDACTED] MSP inmate, described as a white male doing a 25 year sentence from Kansas City on a rape charge. [REDACTED] was also active in running gambling games. [REDACTED] persuaded [REDACTED] to "lay off" RAYE in connection with the gambling debt owed him. He further recalled this incident having taken place in 1963 or 1964 at which time JIMMY RAYE was housed in C Hall while he, [REDACTED] was residing in G Hall.

[REDACTED] stated his wife's true name at the time he married her was [REDACTED]. While in MSP he corresponded with her under this name as well as under the names [REDACTED]. He was not positive but believed her maiden name to be [REDACTED]. His wife under the name [REDACTED]. Her parents and relatives are believed to reside in Atlanta. He recalled that [REDACTED] was at one time a member of the downtown branch of the Alcoholics Anonymous Club in Shreveport, Louisiana. She also may have been a member of Alcoholics Anonymous in Atlanta.

With respect to a date on which he could have been involved committing a crime in Atlanta, [REDACTED] advised he was released from the penitentiary at [REDACTED].
