Dear Harold,

I'm delighted to hear from you. You have become the most famous member of our group. I thought you would become noted for chickens, but it's Dallas you have exploited brilliantly. My compliments.

Sorry to hear you're ailing.

Man, we have nothing like $1000 to give to you, even tho you are right in saying you merit it. No one has done more for the cause of ~~xxxxxx~~ truth in the JFK thing than you.

If you're lecturing in the area, perhaps ~~we~~ can combine ~~yxxxx~~ your trip here with another trip, so we won't have to pay you so much. I could put you on radio here and give the book a plug. I could get you a ~~pxxxx~~ photo with the mayor and help promote the cause, but, brother, $1000 we aint got. What we got is a deficit. I send check for the latest book. Love,

Sam
