Dear Mr. Smith,

Please understand the brevity of this letter. I've just returned from work in New Orleans and the mail is stacked high. I am also that much farther behind in my own work.

My agent is not even trying to do anything with my own new book, finished for about six months now and unpublished. I am sorry, but I cannot help you in any way, much as I'd like to. I will not mislead you.

The only thing I can suggest is to mail it to publishers, hoping one might get interested.

Good luck.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg;

After receiving your latest books I added another short chapter to my rather short book. It is only 275 pages but in a digested form of reporting. The chapter added, copies ^{the} dotted sequences of the inside cover of 'Photographic Whitewash'. I feel very strongly that this book should be promoted at all costs.

My book elaborates more on the erring forces of oppositional elements as a whole that have made a continuous cycle of repetitive mistakes advancing us into modern versions of the same old dark ages. I relate how this can be avoided by a social combined effort of all thinking people to correct and remove these mistakes from future records of history.

I have made 5 more copies of my book to send to publishers but I hesitate, as I dont know which ones or which agent to contact. Could you in some way help me so I would be in a position to be of more help myself. I do not intend to write any more on the assassination but would like to push yours. Anyone reading my book which is highly interesting would be moved to read yours; I made sure of that.

I tried to get an item published in the Syracuse papers relative to new scientific evidence on the case but faced a wall of disinterest and sidetracking. Before I left Dallas I tried to see Lovelady but was unsuccessful. I did examine that swinging door and thought the Commission's version of the lunchroom encounter should have a rebuttal and I devoted a chapter to this.

Would your agent be interested or do you know one who might be. I am sending you the index and a copy of Comm. exhibit III8 with some of my typing on it. I can only hope we dont have to go through another cycle of Fascism even worse than that which happened in Germany; however I am deeply afraid from what I have discovered that IF we people of righteousness dont join forces and pull together it could happen

I hope to hear from you soon relative to any one who might be able to help me get my book read by the public I dont care if its in paperback or not. I know it will help push your beek and not until the public knows and reads your beeks will there be any chance of correcting the situation.

Sincerely Charles E. Smith
