U.S. Executive Faces Trial in Hungar

By RAYMOND H. ANDERSON

Special to The New York Times

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Feb. 7 court, here early next month cern about possible disruption automobile as a gift and a West boyant commercial operation ment in relations between the involving alleged bribery, gifts United States and Hungary. of new cars, bank accounts abroad for Hungarian accomplices, black-market currency dealings and "violation of official secrets."

The American citizen, Dr. Tibor Glaz, is described here doros collective farm. of the Ralston Purina Company. Dr. Glaz was arrested last year. About 20 Hungarians is an epic in chicken-feed and a West German bank.

Hungarians facing trial were a toruist trip abroad. "responsible officials" and that Another Hungarian accused some had salaries as high as in the case, Lazzlo Miklos, was 10,000 forints a month ($370), a department head in the Trust Hungary.

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Feb. 7 political implications in the af-An American business repre-fair. On the contrary, the long Dr. Glaz. Mr. Miklos also is sentative is expected to face a silence seemed to reflect con- accused of having received an of a recent significant improve- German bank account.

> the indictment, Dr. Glaz first accurate list of the collective made an arrangement with Imr farms dealing with the processing of poultry." This, it appears, is the basis for the Joint Enterprise of the Kon-doros collective farm. charge of "violation of official secrets."

Car Received is Left

have been implicated in the Mr. Szilagyi a commission of reached to buy pig feed and a case. Two are said to have 30 cents a ton upon the signing committed suicide. of a contract for 60,000 tons The indictment, as published, of pig-feed nutritives, or a total would suggest that the affiar of $18,000, to be deposited in he pig-feed salesmanship.

After months of what one report continued, before the usual gift of an automobile was not lacking."

The police intervened, the usual gift of an automobile was not lacking."

The account of the indict But Mr. Szilagyi was said to ment cited other Hungarians involved in the case and count of the indictment.

The account of the indictment cited other Hungarians involved in the case and count of the indictment.

West Common as well as money from a secretary, Gyula Rajos, had Hetfoi Hirek stressed that the a West German account during been helping Dr. Glaz for years virtually the upper limit in of Poultry Processing Enter-Hungary. Brises. Mr. Miklos was said to There is no evidence of any have received $100 a month for political implications in the af-

More ominously, the indict-ment charged that Mr. Miklos According to the report on had drawn up for Dr. Glaz "an

A state farm director, Karoly Car Received is Left Under the arrangement, it received about $1,000 from Dr.
Was said, Dr. Glaz was to pay Glaz after a contract was

> "He could have earned more $15,000-from this deal, but he was unmasked, "Hetfoi Hirek said. "In this case, too, > in illegal sales of dollars.