The NCTIA however has developed several correlated pieces of evidence, including recent statements from one of the FBI agents Oswald reported to in his informer role. Collectively, this evidence shows that Oswald was indeed being paid by the FBI to infiltrate various pro-Castro and anti-Castro groups as well as the JFK assassination team. He reported his findings to three different FBI agents, two in New Orleans and one in Dallas. He attended several meetings in Mexico City where the assassination was planned. He reported to the FBI that President Kennedy was to be assassinated in Dallas just a few days before that happened.

On the day before the assassination and on the morning of the assassination, the special agent in Dallas that Oswald reported to, was trying to find him in order to obtain more information from him.

A record exists that the FBI received the information from Oswald about the forthcoming assassination, but the FBI did nothing about it except for the futile attempts of the agent to find Oswald. The record is in the form of a TWX message which appeared on November 17, 1963, on the FBI teleprinter in New Orleans relayed from Dallas via Washington, D.C. William S. Walters, FBI security clerk in New Orleans, retained a copy and gave it to District Attorney Jim Garrison of New Orleans.

With this type of correlative evidence and the relationship of the Secret Executive Session dates to Waggoner Carr's visit, it is a fairly good bet that the sessions were classified because the Commission discovered some of the other evidence and did not want it known that Oswald was an FBI informer.

However, even if this is not the case, the public is entitled to know what went on in those sessions. The chances that declassifying them now and publishing them will endanger our national security after nearly eight years, are slimmer than "endangering national security" by publishing the Pentagon Papers has been.

One of the classified sessions worried the Commission so much they went to the extreme of forcing the stenographer to destroy his notes. (See Reference 5.)

In addition to the Commission's secret sessions, various classified FBI documents no doubt would reveal Oswald's informer status. Reference 6 includes document 941, "Telephone numbers on 47th page of Lee Harvey Oswald's address book/Washington, D.C." This document may reveal that Oswald had placed in his book the phone numbers of the three FBI agents to whom he reported as a paid informer.

There are a total of 40 documents classified by the FBI concerning Oswald. Most of them are labelled "Lee Harvey Oswald" and a city such as Chicago or Washington. This would tend to indicate either a series of reports about Oswald from various FBI offices, or perhaps multiple copies of an FBI directive to various offices. In any event, the FBI was certainly trying to keep something about Oswald from the public's eyes. To date the FBI has succeeded.

Oswald's Knowledge of the U2

Thesis: Oswald had access to knowledge about the U2 high flying planes.

Another subject the public is entitled to know about is document number 931, Reference 6, classified secret by the CIA.

The title is "Oswald's access to Information About the U2." This title takes on added significance when correlated with evidence about Oswald's training for espionage work while at Atsugi Air Force Base in Japan and statements by Francis Gary Powers in his new book.[3]

There is every indication from available evidence that Oswald and Powers met in Italy prior to the U2 overflight. There is also a heavy weight of evidence showing that Oswald was trained by the CIA for spy work before his trip to Russia.

The secret documents whose titles refer to the relation of Oswald and Russia, and which were classified by the CIA, undoubtedly would also be very revealing on this subject. See Table 1.

The Warren Commission may be off the hook on this problem, since they did not see most of these documents. They were filed in the Archives long after the Commission disbanded. On the other hand, it seems likely that
