

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

WED., 11 FEB '76.

The copy of Post-Mortem ordered for England arrived today and was sent off today - as well as an accompanying letter, under separate cover.

Your timing, or the U.S. Mails' timing, was just right. I arrived home after 10 da in hospital with pneumonia yesterday so that even if the copy of P-M had arrived earlier I would not have been able to post it. It's gone crits way now, however; let's hope that something 'constructive' comes of it! Thank you so much for the note. My best to you and Mrs Weisberg.

Sincerely, James Steen, Jr.

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

21 February 1976

P.C. replied on the 17th and his letter arrived this morning. I quote the pertinent first paragraph: "How very nice indeed to get a letter from you - not to mention a book. It is a massive work and I see you feel very strongly about it. I will certainly read it with avidity and find out what the situation is about rights (right away, j.c.s.)."

I sincerely hope that something comes of this; am keeping fingers crossed. Just consider this card to be a progress report and don't take time to reply.

With best regards

James Steen Jr.

Dear Harold & Hil -

This photo was taken years ago of the house across the street from ours! We dearly love our place & it is nearly finished.

"Retirement" is wonderful, we even get to stay up late to watch baseball. Ben & children were here a few weeks ago, all is well @ everyone in family!

We miss you & love you very much (we don't like Kenneth Starr!)

Please keep in touch... Bet & Jim
