Dallas County officials voted Tuesday to allow OLIVER STONE access to the Texas School Book Depository to film " JFK, " his film on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. KEVIN COSTNER plays JAMES GARRISON, the former New Orleans prosecutor who maintained that the shooting was a conspiracy between the Central Intelligence Agency and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

County commissioners agreed to permit use of the depository's seventh floor, which is vacant. But Mr. Stone and his co-producer, CLAYTON TOWNSEND, said Press Alt-H for Help or Alt-Q to Quit.
