

Dear Mr. Dodd,

3/28/92

As a matter of principle rather than indicating any support of approval of this newest of Olver Stone's exploitations and commercializations of the JFK assassination - of which he remains ignorant of the fact, in which he never had an interest - here is my signed permission to use my letter to the Washington Post of 1/11/92.

If this book is what he was referring to when he said he'd prepare the script for use in schools, ugh!

I am not familiar with your practise relating to credit lines so I've left that blank.

I am the author of six books on the JFK assassination, Whitewash I-IV, Oswald in New Orleans, and Post Nortem; and of Frame-Up on the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr.

If you want more, I have obtained about a third of a million pages of once-withheld official records relating to these crimes and their investigations, by a series of Freedom of Information Act lawsuits.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

We beg your immediate attention to the following request made on behalf of Oliver Stone.

As part of a comprehensive appendix to Mr. Stone's forthcoming book JFK: THE BOOK OF THE FILM, a Documented Screenplay (to be published in April by Applause Books), we seek non-exclusive world permission to include the following material(s) which you control:

"Lonely Man in the Middle"
by Harold Weisberg, 1/11/92 (The Washington Post)

Mr. Stone has authorized us to select (without consultation with him) the major responses to the film's historical and political argument. Our editors have chosen the above piece(s) to reflect the full spectrum of reaction to Mr. Stone's work.

The book will also include the complete screenplay, deleted and altered scenes, over 100 stills, national security action memos, CIA documents, a bibliography, complete credits and over 150 annotations throughout, detailing the historical research for the film.

All selections will appear unexcerpted in their original complete format. We include for your review a photocopy of your original.

Further details about our publication:

Price: $15.95, 416 pages, 6 x 9, paperback; first printing: 20,000.

Will you please signify your consent by signing and returning one copy of this letter to me?

Many thanks.

Yours Sincerely,
