

FLASHBACK with Yellow Roses.....

SHOOTING IN DALLAS Oliver Stone begins his latest '60's epic ...
(entertainment V/3/91)

DALLAS AGAIN ON FILM ...Dealey Plaza looks almost exactly as it did 28 years ago ...curvaceous deSotos and tailfin Cadillacs, and men in fedoras and baggy suits and women in stretch pants and '60's hairdos crowds gathered to look at the replica of the slate-blue Lincoln Continental time and again on Tuesday the presidential motorcade took off with its motorcycle escort and then loud shots rang out within minutes later the motorcade would return, its actors looking as fit as before (Boston Globe, IV/29/91)

STONE ROLLING WITH 'JFK' PROJECT the director who has been developing the work for some 2 1/2 years acknowledged he will take some "creative" liberties in preparing for the project Stone culled research from Gary Shaw, Larry Harris, Larry Howard, Robert Groden and Fletcher Prouty, among 7 to 10 othersfrom a screenplay by Stone and Zachary Sklar based on (Jim) Garrison's book "On the Trail of the Assassins", Jim Marrs' "Crossfire" and numerous public sources, 'JFK' will illuminate additional information since Garrison's prosecution of the murder in 1969
(Daily Variety, II/25/91)

The release from THE THIRD FLOOR, JFK AIC comes wrapped in Stone's secrecy agreement not to divulge details observed during filming.

....Academy Award winner Kevin Costner is portraying Jim Garrison ... other stars include Lolita Davidovich (Blaza) as Beverly Oliver, Brian Doyle-Murray as Jack Ruby, Tommy Lee Jones as Clay Shaw and Gary Oldman as Lee Harvey Oswald.

Garrison is playing Earl Warrenother 'JFK' performers are Sissy Spacek, Sally Kirkland, John Larroquette, Walter Matthau, Glenn Ford and Jack Lemmon..... in a recent interview, however, Stone said he doesn't accept the official scenario of the JFK assassination.

Last month he told Mother Jones magazine the Warren Commission was "bunk" and furthermore (please turn to page 8) →
