

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

CD 646

1Date 3/4/64

WILLIAM K. STUCKEY, Tulane University News Service, Gibson Hall Tulane University, residence address 2317 State Street, New Orleans, advised that he has possession of the original 37 minute taped interview he had with OSWALD on August 17, 1963. He said he preferred to maintain custody of the original tape since he is negotiating for its sale to a news agency. He also stated that he preferred not to have a copy made of the original tape until after he had completed negotiations for the sale of the original

CD646:9. This does not say the FBI got or wanted a copy of the Oswald interview tape. Had they really wanted it, they'd have taken it and copied it. But why didn't the FBI see him about this before 3/4/64?
