Attention: Permissions

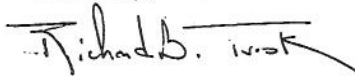

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I am an archivist by profession and am in the process of completing for self-publication a book on the photographic history of the President Kennedy assassination. Titled Pictures of the Pain, the book will have a very limited run of less than 1,500 copies. It will be a serious study of the history of the photographic record of the Kennedy assassination, and not a "Who Done It?"

I would request permission to quote several excerpts from two of your books, (Whitewash II; the FBI—Secret Service Coverup, ©1966; and Photographic Whitewash: Suppressed Kennedy Assassination Pictures, ©1967, 1976) for inclusion in my volume.

The front matter of my volume will include a permission page in the general format reading "Excerpts from . . . by . . . Copyright ©19--. Reprinted by permission of . . ." or in whatever form you deem appropriate. Chapter notes and bibliographical references will be included in the back matter. I would very much appreciate permission to quote from your publication, and thank you for your attention to this request.

Sincerely,

Richard B. Trask
